Summer Homework Task: RO33 Supporting Individuals Through Life Events

You should have now completed:

- ✓ Task 2a: Your description of two life events
- ✓ Task 2b: An explanation of the PIESF impact of ONE life event
- ✓ Task 2c: An explanation of at least two needs of the individual, related to the impacts you have written about in task 2b.

Your summer homework task is to fully research and complete your first coursework draft for task 3a – A report on information, based on research for all three sources of support, that would help meet your chosen individual's needs, identified in task 2c.

You MUST:

1. 1st Need - research and write detailed information on TWO formal types of support organisations that could help meet this specific need. This should include one local Leicester type of formal support.
2. 1st Need - research and write detailed information on TWO informal types of support that could help meet this specific need. This could include one local Leicester type of informal support.
3. 1st Need - research and write detailed information on TWO charity-based organisations that could help meet this specific need. This should include one local Leicester charity.

YOU WILL NEED TO REPEAT THE ABOVE THREE STEPS FOR YOUR SECOND NEED!

Please refer to the power point slide show, emailed, for support if needed.

Do not forget to reference your work and complete a bibliography - add a list of websites used for research at the end of your work. You must reference any quotes used within your work. Refer to the modelled coursework example you studied in class.
